

ULTIMATE DESIGNATED PERSON (UDP) COMPETENCY PROFILE

The following is the competency profile for a highly competent and compliant UDP from a regulatory perspective. It captures the general knowledge, behaviours and skills they need to have and apply to support their leadership position within the dealer through their responsibility, accountability and authority. The required knowledge is dictated by the responsibilities and accountabilities of the role, which are both defined and informed by the authority of the UDP.

Please refer to Appendix 13 to review the reference document for the UDP competency profile.

ULTIMATE DESIGNATED PERSON (UDP) COMPETENCY PROFILE

The following is the competency profile for a highly competent and compliant UDP from a regulatory perspective. It captures the general knowledge, behaviours and skills they need to have and apply to support their leadership position within the dealer through their responsibility, accountability and authority. The required knowledge is dictated by the responsibilities and accountabilities of the role, which are both defined and informed by the authority of the UDP.

Please refer to Appendix 13 to review the reference document for the UDP competency profile.

1. General Regulatory Framework

Understand and apply the following as applicable:

- I. Role of securities and derivatives regulators, SRO and applicable laws
- II. Role of other financial service regulators and applicable laws
- III. Dealer business models and related areas
- IV. Offering and distribution of securities

ULTIMATE DESIGNATED PERSON (UDP) COMPETENCY PROFILE

The following is the competency profile for a highly competent and compliant UDP from a regulatory perspective. It captures the general knowledge, behaviours and skills they need to have and apply to support their leadership position within the dealer through their responsibility, accountability and authority. The required knowledge is dictated by the responsibilities and accountabilities of the role, which are both defined and informed by the authority of the UDP.

Please refer to Appendix 13 to review the reference document for the UDP competency profile.

2. Corporate Governance and Ethics

Understand and apply the following as applicable:

- I. Corporate governance
- II. Ethics, conflicts of interest and confidentiality

ULTIMATE DESIGNATED PERSON (UDP) COMPETENCY PROFILE

The following is the competency profile for a highly competent and compliant UDP from a regulatory perspective. It captures the general knowledge, behaviours and skills they need to have and apply to support their leadership position within the dealer through their responsibility, accountability and authority. The required knowledge is dictated by the responsibilities and accountabilities of the role, which are both defined and informed by the authority of the UDP.

Please refer to Appendix 13 to review the reference document for the UDP competency profile.

3. Duties, Liabilities and Defences

Understand and apply the following as applicable:

- I. Duties
- II. Liabilities
- III. Defences

ULTIMATE DESIGNATED PERSON (UDP) COMPETENCY PROFILE

The following is the competency profile for a highly competent and compliant UDP from a regulatory perspective. It captures the general knowledge, behaviours and skills they need to have and apply to support their leadership position within the dealer through their responsibility, accountability and authority. The required knowledge is dictated by the responsibilities and accountabilities of the role, which are both defined and informed by the authority of the UDP.

Please refer to Appendix 13 to review the reference document for the UDP competency profile.

